

NOBODIES BEAR

To celebrate 10 years of our London Gallery, Pi Artworks wanted to do something a bit different. So, we're hosting NOBODIES BEAR. 10 days of immersive theatre performance by Tommy Langdale – featuring music, dance, film, poetry and everything in between.

Shows from the 4th - 14th May
55 Eastcastle St, London,
W1W 8EG.

TICKETS AVAILABLE HERE:

Timeout: 60% Off Nobodies Bear

Nobodies Bear is a deeply personal, performance piece set against a backdrop of interlinked installations at Pi Artworks London. A collection of stories, drawn together in several dance and musical performances by Tommy Langdale, which highlight the creative expanse of the ADHD mind, and channel the experiences of neuro-diverse people through the artist's own journey. Prepare for song, dance, film, poetry, 80s nostalgia and everything in between.

Nobodies Bear, Whoshe Ragdoll and Tommy's Mind, though intimate, ask universal questions: Are my perceptions of the world all mine? Or do they belong to nobody? Are they instead part of something much larger, perhaps even a connection that spans the entirety of human history? Suitable for all ages, this show is both hilarious and heartwarming, reflective and joyous, personal and yet fiercely relatable.

One thing's for certain: it's a ride you don't want to miss.

For more information, contact London@PiArtworks.com

Tommy Langdale (1987, UK) is an artist and choreographer whose professional career spans over 2 decades. He is currently a resident teacher at Pineapple studios and teaches independently in studios across the UK, from prestigious theatre schools to professional colleges.

Credits include: West Side Story, My Fair Lady and Mamma Mia 2 (Vocals for Tim Rice). Langdale has also worked as a judge, and is the creator of @stardancerUK